The Gate

The first thing you will see on your arrival to any kaserne is the gate. Due to force protection, there is a twenty-four hour I.D. check. The Pond's guards are a great group and it is amazing how positive they can be at odd hours of the day. The guards at Old Argonner Gate are the friendliest I've met.

Outdoor Recreation

The Hanau Outdoor Rec is located in this big ware house, so it is easy to find. Here they rent sport and camping equipment. They also sponsor group trips from shopping to white water rafting.

Argonner Elementary School

Argonner Elementary includes grades Sure Start (preschool) through fifth. Located in the housing area, it is surrounded by playgrounds, making recess a high priority. It is a short walk for those kids living in housing. The school itself is of medium size; there are two or three classes to each grade.

Five Pfenning Theater

The Five Pfenning Theater is your community play house. They produce several plays each year. Anyone can audition for a part. They put on dramas, comedies, and musicals. The performances are accompanied by a catered dinner, or a wine and cheese night.

Housing

Old Argonner

These apartments are known as Bowling Alleys on account of their long, wide hallways. Rumor has it they used to be Nazi office buildings and are haunted.

The Bridge

A bridge over the street connects Old Argonner to New Argonner. It provides a safe way to cross the street and enables you to go to the other kaserne without having to take your I.D. out of your pocket.
